

Once upon a time...Alba Victoria, was born on the 14th of September 1984 in Zaragoza (Spain).

As a little girl, my parents used to take me to the beach and therefore the Mediterranean Sea has always been a part of me. Playing with my brothers, doing sand castles, being childish and playing in the water....all of these are true memories as a child.

1985-1986

I am the oldest of my three siblings. My father wanted a boy and therefore I had to wear clothes like if I was one, have the same hair style and play with boy toys.

1987

Once my two brothers were born, my father allowed me to wear little dresses and clothing more appropriate for the little girl I was.

At home, I would ALWAYS start dancing when there was music playing on the tv or on the radio. When I turn 4, my parents took me to the Ballet School of my hometown but with the condition (by my father) that I as well did other sports like judo and swimming.

1988 -1990

First performances at the Ballet School "Olga Roig" (Manresa,Catalonia):

1991

I loved all of Walt Disney's Fairy tales, but especially the ones I could dream of being a Princess (a light pink princess to be more precise

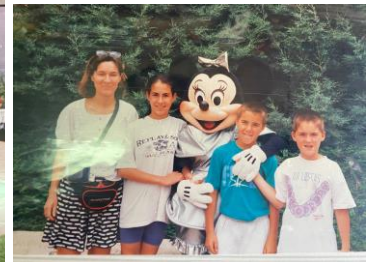

1992 - 1993

I was a good Student and I always tried to succeed in my degrees, so my father could let me continue dancing. When I was dancing I felt like a Princess, and pink was my favourite colour.

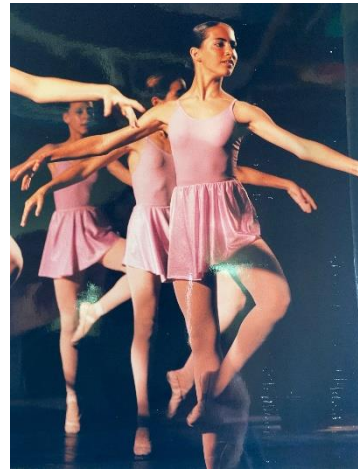

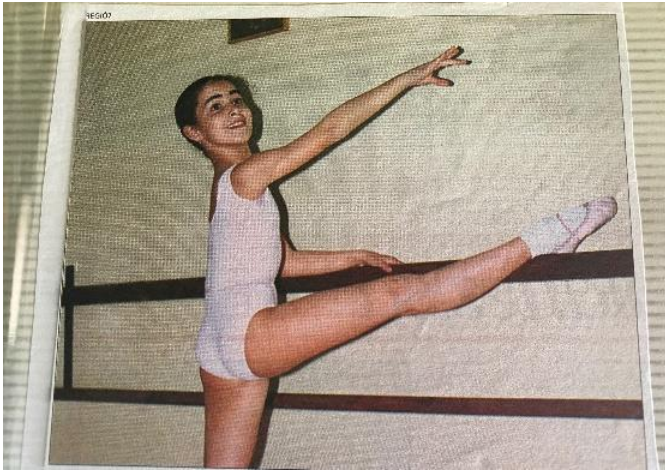

In 1993, I had the bronze Medal in the 200m Butterfly in the Catalonia Championship.

1994

When I was 10 years old, after auditioning in Madrid, I received a scholarship to go to the Summer Intensive Course at Royal Ballet School.

1995 – 1997

Continuing growing and living my passion which it has always been, since a little girl, to be a ballerina/dancer.
